Numb. 6611.

The Daily Courant.

Saturday, December 29. 1722.

London, December 29.

Yesterday arrived four Mails from Holland.

Warsaw, December 5.

THE Grand Council of Senators ended their Session the 1st Instant, in which they agreed to the following Particulars, viz. 1th, To signify in Writing to the neighbouring Potentates their Intention to maintain with them good Friendship and Correspondence. 2dly, To preserve the Confederacy made in the Year 1712. 3dly, To leave to the King's good Disposition and Pleasure, the Meeting of the Provincial Dyets. 4thly, To draw from the Treasury the Sums requisite for repairing the fortified Places on the Frontiers, fill the Magazines, and to keep the Train of Artillery in good Condition. 5thly, To empower the Deputies of the Senate, and the Ministers of Poland and Lithuania, to regulate the other Points, and to confer concerning the Affair of Courland, with the Ministers of Muscovy and Prussia. It is generally believed, the King will not continue here some time longer to settle Measures for preserving the Peace of the Kingdom, and to quash the Attempts of the Malecontents.

Petersburg, Dec. 12. Lieutenant General Count Golofskin, who followed the Czar in his Expedition to Persia, is lately returned hither. It is said, he brings Orders from his Czarish Majesty to compleat all the Regiments, that they may be in a Readiness to march by the next Spring: The Admiralty has also given the like Orders with respect to the Navy. - - - - It is reported, that the Expedition to Persia has cost no more than 1,620,000 Rubles, and that more than two Millions in Gold have been brought from thence. Some Advices say, that Miri Weys having formed a Design for the retaking of Derbent and other conquered Places, the Czar was therefore obliged to send further a Reinforcement of Troops and Provision, and to continue longer at Astracan than he expected. The Indisposition of the eldest young Princess is turned into a Tertian Fever. Fifty of the Seamen that were lately ordered to be sent to Astracan, are returned hither since, and will soon be followed by the rest. All the Foreigners that are settled here are obliged to take an Oath, testifying their Approbation of the Choice which the Czar shall be pleased to make of a Successor to his Crown, viz.

WE swear, that as long as we shall live in this mighty Empire, under the gracious Toleration of his Imperial Majesty, whom God preserve long upon Earth, and crown with eternal Glory in Heaven, we will never oppose, directly nor indirectly, nor in any Manner whatsoever, the Declaration made, or to be made, concerning the Succession to the Russian Monarchy; nor any wise stand, those who shall oppose it; but that we will consent to their Advancement, in pursuance of the Advantage to the Successor appointed by his Imperial Majesty, and with the same Respect, Love, and Sincerity, as towards his Imperial Majesty now reigning.

Lisbon, Dec. 6. Two Ships are arrived here, belonging to the Fleet from the Bay of All-Saints in the Brasils; they left that Fleet off of Fernambucco, expecting to be joined by the other in that Port, and to sail in Company to this River: Persons on board these two Ships say, that both these Fleets are richly laden. - - - - No Corsairs of Algiers or Salle have been seen for some time past in these Seas. - - - - The three Ambassadours from the American King of Tocale presented to his Portuguese Majesty at the Time of their late Audience, several Bars of Silver, Elephants Teeth, and Roots of a certain Plant in their Country, to which they attribute a certain Virtue of miraculous Kind.

Madrid, Dec. 15. Don Gonzales Chacon, y Castellana, Viceroy and Captain-General of the Kingdom of Navarre, died the 9th Instant at Pamplona. - - - - An Extraordinary Courier arrived here Last Week from Cadiz, and brings an Account, that the Advice-Boat the Six Couriers, arrived there the 6th Instant, having sailed from that Port the 31st of January last with Dispatches for New-Spain; that the two Men of War which sailed from Cadiz the 26th of June past, under the Command of Don Ferdinand Chacon, arrived at Vera Cruz the 26th of August following, having on board the Marquis of Cala Fuerte, Viceroy of New-Spain.

Turin, Dec. 16. On the 12th Instant in the Morning, his Majesty arrived here from the Venerie, and in the Afternoon her Majesty came with the Prince and Princess, and design to pass the Winter here. The 14th Instant, a Courier from France brought the News of the Death of the Dutchess Dowager of Orleans; upon which, great Preparations are making for the Court's going into Mourning. Letters of the 12th Instant from Genoa tell us, that of the two remaining Ships belonging to the Pretender, one of them was taken, and it is hoped the other will meet with the same Fate.

Cambray, Dec. 19. The Marquis de Corsini, Minister of the Grand Duke of Tuscany, has insisted strongly, that the Succession to the Dominions of his Royal Highness may be settled upon his Daughter the Electress Dowager Palatine, preferably to the Infante Don Carlos; but the Ministers of those Potentates who have signed the Quadruple Alliance, have answered him, that they will not recede a Tittle from what is concluded on that Head. The Ambassadours Plenipotentiary of Spain appear very well satisfied at the Answer which those of the Emperour have lately received from Vienna, so that it is expected to hear soon that a Day is appointed for opening of the Congress.

Brussels,

Brussels, Dec. 23. M. Cobb, whom the Emperor has appointed to be Governour of the Fort that is designed to be built on the Coast of Bengal, set out from hence the 21st Instant, in order to embark at Ostend on board a Ship which lies ready in that Port, and bound to the East Indies. --- The Countess de Bormé, the Marquess de Lede's Sister, returned hither last Night a little indisposed, occasioned by sitting up too late at the Entertainments made at Conde the 11th Instant at Midnight, when the Marquess de Lede her Brother was married to the Duke de Croy's Daughter. --- The Deputies of Hainault took their Audience of Leave Yesterday of the Marquess de Prié, who has not stirred out of his Chamber since his last Illness. --- Don Emanuel, Prince of Portugal, is not expected here before the 28th Instant, nevertheless great Preparation is making here for his Reception, and Gaudy Entertainments while he stays in this City.

Dartmouth, Dec. 25. Came in the Katherine Galley of and from Havre for St. Domingo; the Anne of London from Amsterdam for Vigo. Sailed the Katherine of and for Dublin, and the Adventure from Rotterdam for Nants. This Day came in the Dolphin of and from London for Dublin.

Gravesend, Dec. 27. This Morning passed by the Molley from Petersbourg.

Deal, Dec. 26. The outward-bound are all still here. Since came down Mary for Barcelona. Many of the outward-bound are just now under Sail.

Deal, Dec. 27. Some of the outward-bound sailed Yesterday Westward, others this Morning, and all the rest are just now under Sail. Came down and also sailed the Restoration for Maryland.

London, December 29.

Yesterday South-Sea Stock was 100, to 100 1 half. Bank 116 1 qr. India Books shut. Africas 9 1 qr. Unsubscribed Lottery Annuity 100 1 half. York-Buildings 15 1 qr. Royal Exchange Assurance 4 1 8th. London Assurance 5 1 8th.

Whitehall, Dec. 17, 1728.

Whereas the House of Brigadier Grove, in Sackville-street, near Piccadilly, was broke open in the Night between the 7th and 8th of this Instant December, and therefrom a considerable Quantity of Plate was feloniously taken, marked with the said Brigadier's Crest, viz. a Talbot with this Motto round it, Vince Malum Bono, and several other Goods of Value: His Majesty is pleased, for the better Discovery of the Persons concerned in the said Robbery, to promise his most gracious Pardon to any Person concerned in the same, who shall discover his Accomplices in the said Robbery, so as they, or any, or either of them, may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

TOWNSHEND.

And the said Brigadier Grove doth hereby promise a Reward of Ten Guineas to any one of the Persons who shall discover his Accomplices in the said Robbery, so as he or they may be convicted thereof, to be paid by Mr. Bland, at Will's Coffee-House, Scotland-Yard,

N. Bland.

The Directors of the Corporation of the Amicable Society for a Perpetual Assurance Office do hereby give Notice, that the present, and those who shall hereafter become Members of the said Corporation, may Insure one, two, or three Numbers in one Policy, on their own Life, paying yearly 4 l. 4 s. for each Number so insured, by quarterly Payments, so long as they shall Live, their Assignes at their Death may receive from the yearly Dividend made by the said Corporation the Sum of 100 l. or more, for every Number so insured, which is more than 24 Years Purchase on a single Life, for every 4 l. 4 s. paid yearly to the said Corporation.

AT the King's Theatre in the Hay-Market, this present Saturday, being the 28th of December, will be perform'd An Opera call'd, CRISPUS. Pit and Boxes to be put together, and in Regard to the Increase of the Numbers of the Subscribers, no more than Three Hundred and Fifty Tickets will be deliver'd out this Day, at Mrs. White's Chocolate-House in St. James's-Street, at Half a Guinea each. No Person are to be admitted behind the Scenes. Gallery 5 s. To begin exactly at Six o'Clock.

By His Majesty's Company of Comedians.

AT the Theatre Royal in Drury-lane this present Saturday, being the 28th of December, will be presented, The True and Ancient History of King Lear and his Three Daughters. King Lear by Mr. Booth, Edgar Mr. Wilks, Edmund Mr. Mills, Gloster Mr. Thurmond, Kent Mr. Williams, Gentleman Usher Mr. Pinkethman, Cordelia Mrs. Booth.

By the Company of Comedians.

AT the Theatre Royal in Lincoln's-Inn-Fields, this present Saturday, being the 28th of December, will be presented, a Comedy call'd, The Merry Wives of Windsor. Written by Shakespear. The Part of Sir John Falstaff by Mr. Quin, Ford Mr. Ryan, Mr. Page Mr. Diggs, Mr. Fenton Mr. Egleton, Slender Mr. W. Bullock, Justice Shallow Mr. Bohemy, Sir Hugh Evans Mr. Hippisley, Host Mr. Bullock, Sen. Dr. Caius Mr. Hall, Mrs. Ford Mrs. Cross, Mrs. Page Mrs. Seymour, Anne Page Mrs. Rogier, Mrs. Quickley Mrs. Egleton. With several Entertainments of Dancing, by Mr. Lally, Mr. Pelling, Mr. Newhouse, Mr. Lally, Jun. Mrs. Rogier, Mrs. Bullock, and Miss Francis: Particularly, A Dramatic Entertainment in Grotesque Characters, call'd, Amadis; or, The Loves of Harlequin and Colombine. Boxes 3 s. Pit 2 s. Gallery 1 s.

Notice is hereby given,

That the Artificial Anatomy of Humane Bodies done after the Life, in colour'd Wax, is now open'd for the Sight of the Curious and Admirers of such singular Performance. The short Bounds of an Advertisement not allowing to present here an Account of the Particulars, they will be given out on purpose in a printed Paper. There is amongst the Bodies never seen before, the Figure of a Man who will appear to the Learned and Curious a Wonder in that Kind. An exact Account shall be given at the last House down on the Right Hand in Somerset-Stairs-Yard in the Strand. N. B. A Board writ with Gold Letters is fixt over the Gate. Price for every Person Five Shillings.

A fine Parcel of Canary-Birds lately come over from Germany, Jonquil, Mottle, Grey, Ash, Buff, and divers other Colours, and are to be sold by Sisse at the Dolphin in Creed-Lane near Ludgate-street.

Went away from Capt. Wightwick's, in Greek-street, Soho, on Friday the 27th Instant, about Six in the Morning, a Foot Boy, aged about 10, and took away with him a Sum of Money; he is about 5 Foot 5 Inches high, a dark brown Complexion, and inclined to squint, and turns in his Toes, had on a dark brown Bob Wig, an old Fustian Frock, the Cuffs turned up with red Plush, a blue Waistcoat and Breeches trimm'd with white. Whoever secures the aforesaid Boy, and sends Word to Captain Wightwick aforesaid, shall receive Five Guineas Reward.

Whereas T. G. did on Friday Night the 27th Instant December absent himself, and the Reason thereof being now known; if he will return again he shall be kindly received, and all things set right again. And as it may happen that this Advertisement may not be seen by him, all good People that by Chance meet with him, and know him by the following Description, viz. A lusty fair full-Face young Man, about 25 Years of Age, with the Marks of the Small-Pox, in a sort of a dun-coloured Suit of fine Cloth Cloaths and Stockings of the same Colour, a large Drab Coat, fair Perriwig Eye or Bob; are desired to perswade him to return, or give Notice by Letter, or otherwise, where he may be heard of, and send the Intelligence to Mrs Cross, an Oyl-Shop, in St. James's-street, and any reasonable Charge shall be thankfully allowed.

School-Books used in the Lowest Forms of St. Paul's School.

1. Mr. Hoadley's Natural Method of Teaching. Being the Accidence in Questions and Answers explained, &c. The 7th Edition.

2. Nomenclatura Anglo-Latina; Containing a Collection of Nouns and Verbs fitted to the Rules of Propria quæ Maribus, Quæ Genus, &c. The 3d Edition.

3. Paul's School Dialogues in English and Latin.

4. Fundamenta Gramatices; or, The Foundation of the Latin Tongue. The 6th Edition.

All printed for John Wyat at the Rose in St. Paul's Church-Yard.

Lately published, and printed for Bernard Lintot, at the Cross-Keys between the Temple Gates.

I. Mr. Pope's Homer, and his Poetical Works, in large and small Paper Folio, on Royal Paper in 4to, and in 8 Vol. 12mo, with 32 Copper Plates. To which added,

Dr. King's Historical Account of the Heathen Gods and Heroes, with Cuts. Price of the 9 Volumes 1 l. 6 s.

II. Mr. Archdeacon Parnell's Poems, published by Mr. Pope. Price 3 s. 6 d.

III. Mr. Pope's Rape of the Lock. Essay on Criticism. Windsor Forest. Temple of Fame, and Eloisa and Abelard. Finely printed in 8vo, with Cuts. To be had separately.

IV. Freshoy's Art of Painting, translated by Mr. Dryden, and published by Mr. Pope and Mr. Jervas.

V. The diverting History of Count Gabalis; being an Account of the Rosicrucian Doctrine of Spirits, Sylphs, and Salamanders, Goomes and Demons. From this Book Mr. Pope took the Hint of the Rape of the Lock.

VI. Dr. King's Art of Cookery, in Imitation of Horace's Art of Poetry. With his other Pieces.

VII. A new Edition of Homer, in 4 Vol. 12mo, with Madam Dacier's Notes. Translated by Mr. Oxell, Mr. Broome, and Mr. Oldsworth. With 27 Copper Plates.

VIII. The Odes, Epodes, and Coarmen Seculare of Horace, in Latin and English, with a Translation of Dr. Bentley's Notes. To which are added, Notes upon Notes. 2 Vol. 12mo.

IX. Earl Lauderdale's Translation of Virgil, in 2 Vol. 12mo, beautifully printed.

X. A new Edition of Mr. Prior's Poems Poetick, in 1 Vol. Price 5 s. Corrected by the Author.

XI. The Celebrated Comedies of Mons. de Moliere, translated, in 6 Vol. 12mo.

XII. The Works of Geoffry Chaucer, carefully collated with all the Manuscripts and printed Editions, and is the most correct Book among the Poets. With Cuts.

LONDON, Printed by S. Gray in Amen-Corner,